UT-A Rep to Visit Vets

A representative from the University of Texas at Arlington will visit TCC, Friday, November 30, to talk with all veterans who may be considering the continuation of their education at the U. T. - Arlington Campus after completing their studies at TCC.

The Director of Veterans Affairs at UT - Arlington, Bob McCoy, will have a table set up in the foyer of the Student Center from 9 a.m. until 12 noon.

Grad Fees Upped

The TCC Admissions Office recently announced an increase in this school year's graduation fee. Effective January 1, 1980, the fee will be raised from the current $7.50 to $10.00. The last such increase occurred ten years ago when the fee was increased from $5.00 to $7.50.

Art Sale

Approximately 500 pieces of original Oriental art from Japan, China, India, Tibet, Nepal and Thailand will be on display and for sale in the TCC Student Center Thursday November 29. The art exhibition is being sponsored by Marson Ltd. of Baltimore, Maryland and includes prints that date back into the 18th and 19th century. Among these are Chinese woodcuts, Indian miniature paintings and manuscripts and works by Hiroshige, Kuniyoshi, and Kunisada. The modern art objects consist of original woodcuts etchings, lithographs, serigraphs and mezzotints.

The prints will be shown in open portfolios, and there will be an attendant present to answer questions. Prices run the gamut, and according to a press release from the company, "there is a treasure to be found for most everyone's budget."

The art exhibition begins at 9 a.m. and lasts until 4 p.m. in the Student Center Thursday, November 29.

Texas State Representative Hamp Atkinson addresses TCC students and faculty at a recent PTK sponsored program.

Atkinson Gives Dim Forecast for Education

Texas State Representative Hamp Atkinson recently told a group of approximately 30 TCC students and faculty members "that education and the tax payer are on a collision course." Atkinson who is chairman of the Public Education Committee, made the remark at a November 9 Phi Theta Kappa sponsored presentation in the Classroom Building.

According to Atkinson, one of the major problems in state supported education is that the large four year institutions such as the University of Texas and Texas A & M are continually constructing more buildings and hiring new teachers, even though their enrollments are dropping.

The community colleges, on the other hand are not allowed to spend state money for construction, for the payment of utility bills, or for the maintenance of existing facilities. Atkinson went on to say that there is a growing movement in the state legislature to have schools return to the three R's, because of the disappointing results of some high school literacy test scores.

Part of these low scores can be attributed to the fact that the state is forcing kids to stay in school that a few years ago, were dropping out and filling most of the low paying - low skill jobs.

In addition to education, Atkinson commented on many aspects of the Texas Legislature including the importance of the Speaker of the House, the role of the lobbyists, the "Killer Bees", and the Governor.

Atkinson said that one of the most important votes that he makes at the legislature is the vote he casts for Speaker of the House, because the Speaker is all - powerful in the legislative matters. Atkinson stated that "if the Speaker is against a bill, then the bill does not stand much of a chance of passing", because he controls virtually every committee through his power of appointment. The Speaker appoints the chairman, vice - chairman, and half the members of every committee, so in effect, he can put all his opponents on one of two committees and then not assign them very much to do.

The lobbyists perform a very important function in that while they try to get a representative's support for their cause, they also keep him informed on the progress of a particular bill. Atkinson said that "a good lobbyist will never lie because lying destroys his credibility".

Atkinson did not condone the actions of the twelve "killer bee" senators because he feels that every member of the legislature has been elected to vote on every bill.

TCC Regains Region III Office

Texarkana College was reinstated as parliamentarian at the second Region III meeting of the Texas Junior College Student Government Association held at Cedar Valley Junior College, in Dallas, Saturday, November 10. The reinstatement occurred as the result of discussion on why TCC had been replaced at the first meeting of the semester. Only four of the 13 member schools were present at the first meeting, and among those not attending were the president school, vice - president school and the parliamentarian school (TCC). The four members at the first meeting voted to replace the three office - holding schools not there. TCC Student Senate meeting will be discussed at the next Senate session. President, Tony DeMars, questioned the replacement procedure, stating that TCC had not received notice of the meeting until several days after it was held. After debate on the subject, Cedar Valley Junior College resigned as parliamentarian and TCC was reinstated.

The main item of business, other than the ironing out of the communication problem, was the discussion of a possible "bulletin". Each member college will contribute ideas and information about things that they have sponsored. The next Region III meeting will be held at TCC Saturday, December 8. At the present time, arrangements are incomplete, but the TJCSGA meeting will be discussed at the next Senate session.

Vickey DeMars, Terri Sehested and Kim Wilbanks also represented the TCC Student Senate at the meeting.

Stage Band Places Second in Contest

The TC Stage Band is very happy after their performance at the Weatherford College Band Competition in Weatherford, Texas, November 10. The band placed second at the contest, a surprising show since this is their first time competing. During their visit to Weatherford College they also participated in the jazz clinic.

On November 6, the TC Singers and TC Stage Band performed before the student body in Foreman, Arkansas. The Stage Band members are: Don Miller, Richard Cobb, Greg Nichols, Keith Huggins, John Taylor, Britt Jones, Chris Turner, Jerry Watson, Jamie Watson, Alan Alewine, Pam Duncan, Kevin Jones, Larry Merrill, and Mark Cook.

The TC Singers are: Vanessa Davis, James Ford, Cheryl Keith, Margio Rodgers, Jeffery Young, Wanda Smith, and Redonna Williams.

Sasser Wins Talent Show

A small crowd was on hand Wednesday for the Freshman Follies, a talent show sponsored by the TCC Players, Student Senate and the Athletic Association, held in the TCC Auditorium. Seven acts competed for cash prizes. The first place winner was Quinton Sasser, who disco danced to "Rapper's Delight". Second prize went to Kirk Loshe, doing a comedy routine impression of Steve Martin, and in third place was Mary Runnels with her version of "Somewhere Over the Rainbow".

Other contestants included Jamela Shareaf, who sang; Lorna McCauley, who played piano and sang; A Touch of Class disco dancers; and also Dala Willis who sang. The TC Stage Band provided some excellent intermission entertainment.

NEH to Award Additional Youth Grant

The National Endowment for the Humanities has announced that it will make available to qualified applicants grants that are designed to provide young people, between the ages of 15 and 25, with funds enabling them to pursue independent projects in the humanities. This assistance will be administered through the recently expanded Youth grants program. More than 100 awards are offered to those who have not completed academic or professional training. This program is not designed to provide financial aid for thesis work, although undergraduate work which seems assured of public dissemination can be supported. Some of the areas in which applicants can pursue study include history, ethnic studies, folklore, anthropology, linguistics and the history of art.

Grants are available for individuals or groups. The limit for individuals is $2,500 while $10,000 is the maximum stipend for groups. The deadline for filing grant applications is December 1. These applications should be filed in the college financial aid office, room 200 of the Administration Building, before the deadline date.

Money now Available for UT Transfers

If you are planning to transfer to the University of Texas in Austin, and are in need of financial assistance, there is a new program to help you. Shirley Binder, Director of Financial aid at UT, said in a news release that the University is now offering a scholarship of $1,000 for the 1980 - 81 school year to minority and/or disadvantaged students transferring from a Texas college. The scholarship is renewable for the second year if the student has successfully completed the first year at UT. The deadline for applying is March 1, 1980. According to Georgia McFaul, TCC Counselor, anyone interested in this program should contact her or one of the other counselors in the Counseling Center.

Clock-Hour Registration Set for Today/Tomorrow

Registration for the winter clock - hour programs at Texarkana Community College will be held November 19 and 20. According to Frank Coleman, Director of Admissions, students may register from 8 to 11:30 a.m. and from 1 to 4:30 p.m. both days and from 6 to 8:30 p.m. on the 20th. Tuition and fees must be paid no later than November 21 to avoid a late fee.

Clock hour courses include auto body repair, office occupations, welding, auto mechanics, air conditioning and refrigeration, industrial electricity, small engine repair, electronics, heavy equipment mechanics, and truck driving. Registration is on a space available basis. Interested people should contact the TCC Counseling Center at 838 - 4541 extension 241.

A.A. Announces Events

The Athletic Association officers have called a meeting Tuesday, November 20 at 1:30 p.m. in Mr. Parson's office. To be discussed at this meeting is a possible basketball game between the Dallas Cowboys and the A.A. All officers are urged to be there.

The A.A. sponsored Tencathlon volleyball match will take place Monday, November 19, at 6:30 p. m. in the TCC gym. Those interested in taking part are asked to drop by the gym at the above time.

The four mile Tencathlon marathon will be run on Wednesday, November 28. Anyone interested in competing should contact Hub Dungan at the TCC pool or call 838 - 4541, ext. 319.

Both of these events are open to all TCC students.

Hinton's Hog Wash

by: Loren Hinton

In 1976, when the American people elected Jimmy Carter President of the United States, they also promoted a Senator from the state of Minnesota to the office of Vice - President. Throughout the history of American government, the Vice - President has had very little work to do. In fact, a couple of weeks ago, I learned in Mrs. Davis' history class that one of the best ways to "lose" a politician is to make him Vice - President. Now I can't say for sure that is what the Democrats had in mind when they suggested that Carter choose Walter Mondale as his running mate, but the fact is that Mondale has been seldom seen since he took office.

The CAMPUS NEWS became alarmed at the apparent disappearance of our second most important elected official - quite frankly, we suspected foul play. So late last month, we dispatched ace reporter Freddie Frick to the Capitol City to investigate the matter. The following is Freddie's shocking report:

"When my cab arrived in Washington, the driver said that the fare from Texarkana amounted to $765.64. I threw the man a twenty, yelled "Keep the change" then proceeded to make myself scarce.

Keeping my eyes open for any suspicious looking characters, I made my way up Pennsylvania Avenue. When I neared the White House I put on my glasses, opened up a can of beer that I had in my coat, and belched loudly in the face of the Secret Service agent at the White House gate. He merely smiled at me and said "Good morning, Billy. The President will sure be surprised to see you again."

I made my way into the White House, in search of the President, hoping that he might be able to offer some helpful information that would enable me to crack the case of the missing V.P.

I found Jimmy in the Oval Office, throwing darts at a photograph of a rather large bunny. Closer scrutiny of the picture revealed that the animal's face bore a remarkable resemblance to that of Ted Kennedy. When I asked Mr. Carter what he was doing, he mumbled something about "putting an end to the Killer Rabbit".

I could see that the President was obviously very disturbed about something so I decided to get right down to business.

"Mr. President, have you seen Walter Mondale around lately?"

"Walter who?" he replied.

I immediately realized that the problem was much more serious than I had suspected. I left Jimmy to his dart game and began searching for presidential advisor Hamilton Jordan.

Now I had heard that Hamilton had a much publicized coke habit but I must say that I was not prepared for what I saw. I found Mr. Jordan in a closet hanging upside down from a coat rack. His eyes were glazed and a stereo in the closet was playing a REO SPEED-WAGON record at a deafening level. The stories I had read in the paper were true - - Hamilton did have the habit. Even as he hung there he opened another Coke and tried to drink it from that awkward position.

I decided to leave Jordan hanging there and resumed my search for someone who could give me some clues.

I was walking around the White House grounds looking for anything that might clear up the picture, when I spotted Amy Carter and someone in a clown suit playing dolls out on the front lawn. I decided that maybe Amy could help - - after all, she seemed to be the most normal-acting person that I had seen all day.

"Amy have you seen Walter Mondale lately?"

"Sure have," she replied. "Me and Walter play together every day."

I looked at the clown and he just laughed and began telling Amy a joke about how Senator Howard Baker (who sponsored the Give-The-Canal-Back-To-Panama bill) was planning to deliver the state of Alaska back to the poor deprived Russians. I didn't think the joke was very funny, but I laughed anyway because I had solved my first mystery.

We were very proud of Freddie when we heard that he had found Mr. Mondale. We felt that he deserved a reward, so we offered to give him an expense paid vacation to anywhere in the world that he chose. He wanted to go to Iran and take in some sun. He left on November 2, and we haven't heard from him since. The NEWS staff suggested that I go to Iran to look for him - - they said that my columns are getting kind of stale and that maybe I need the rest and relaxation that a visit to that peaceful Arab country can provide.

Record Review

Reality: What A Concept/ Robin Williams

Profanity. That's what Robin Williams uses to shock his audience, who probably bought the album expecting to hear Mork from Ork. At one point on the record the audience begins chanting "Mork", until Robin yells "I ain't doing Mork, that's why I'm here; to do something different."

A childlike innocence shows through on parts of the album such as when Robin imitates Mr. Rodgers and says "lets put Mr. Hamster in the microwave!" This innocence is gone when he yells at the audience, "What do you want from me anyway!"

Robin Williams uses REALITY: WHAT A CONCEPT to show his talent for improvising with the audience by having the crowd name a subject for him to poke fun at.

BACK TO THE EGG / WINGS

BACK TO THE EGG may have been out awhile but it is still on the charts, because it's good. This album is one of Wings' best, yet it's much different than their last studio effort, LONDON TOWN, which made the top ten last year.

BACK TO THE EGG contains Wings' two hit singles, GETTING CLOSER, ARROW THROUGH ME, as well as TO YOU which is a switch from the acoustic music of LONDON TOWN to their earlier sounds such as BAND ON THE RUN and GOOD NIGHT TONIGHT.

BACK TO THE EGG is another example of why Paul McCartney has become so famous. He combines catchy tunes with catchy lyrics, as in SILLY LOVE SONGS, yet unlike too many performers, he does it with style.

FBI Needs Clerical Employees

The Dallas Office of the FBI, through its Special Agent in Charge, Mr. James A. Abbott, has announced it is in need of clerical employees to fill a limited number of clerk, typist, and stenographer positions at Dallas, Texas. No previous experience is necessary since employees are assigned to existing vacancies when they enter on duty and receive on-the-job training in their assigned duties. These positions are not under Civil Service appointment regulations. To qualify for consideration for FBI employment you must: (1) be a United States citizen, (2) be a high school graduate or its equivalent, (3) be at least 16 years old, (4) have satisfactory vision, (5) undergo a physical examination, (6) pass a rigid background investigation to determine suitability for employment.

continue their college education on a part - time basis while working at these full - time clerical jobs. Young men and women who possess a four year college degree from an accredited college, and who have been employed in a clerical capacity with the FBI for three years, and meet all other requirements, may then be considered for the Special Agent position at a starting salary of $18,760 (GS-10) plus overtime of $4,690 per year.

An application and detailed information may be obtained by calling or writing the Special Agent in Charge, FBI, 200 Mercantile Continental Building, Dallas, Texas 75201, Telephone Area Code 214/741 - 1851, or by contacting the Texarkana, Texas FBI Office at 773 - 3382.

Completed applications should be sent to the above address, as processing of such applications can be instituted as much as six months prior to an individual's availability. Upon receipt of a completed application, the interested applicant will be contacted and arrangements made for administering appropriate tests at a time and place convenient to the applicant. Only those applicants passing these tests will be afforded interviews.

Vacancies for the positions of Clerk, Typist, and Stenographer frequently exist in Bureau Headquarters, in Washington, D.C., for which interested and qualified applicants may also be considered.

Benefits include: annual leave, sick leave, health and life insurance, and retirement benefits.

The FBI is an Equal Opportunity Employer.

Horoscope

For the week of Nov. 18-24

ARIES (March 21 to April 19): Lots of diversified challenges will require that you use your wit and versatility. You may suddenly understand problems that have been perplexing. Be willing to work for a compromise beneficial to all.

TAURUS (April 20 to May 20): You have a talent now to get at the facts. Go over old documents, research and gather information to back up your proposed project. Let others take the limelight — stay on the sidelines and learn by observing.

GEMINI (May 21 to June 20): Many matters could require your attention. Pull back and objectively survey the field before going "six ways to seven." Be cooperative with working associates and listen to their ideas — you can use the help they may give.

CANCER (June 21 to July 22): Pressures ease now and your problems appear well in hand. Postpone any major decision until later, if possible. You will have a more authoritative position than at this time. Get lots of rest and shore up your energy.

LEO (July 23 to Aug. 22): Be cooperative with others, but don't bite off more than you can chew. You may tend to be extravagant or reckless with money — don't tap that "rainy day" savings reserve. Entertaining good friends is favored.

VIRGO (Aug. 23 to Sept. 22): Patiently solve problems that may arise and adjust your work methods where needed. You may feel like going it alone, but you need others' cooperation for utmost efficiency. Double check your work for errors.

LIBRA (Sept. 23 to Oct. 22): Take care of problems when they arise — don't procrastinate unrealistically. There could be some delays regarding matters at a distance. Exhibit patience and it all works out. Not the time to loan or borrow money.

SCORPIO (Oct. 23 to Nov. 21): New opportunities could require that you make adjustments in your routine. Use your self-confidence and make decisions easily. Think twice before ending an emotional relationship — there may be more to learn here.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 22 to Dec. 21): A happy and fulfilling period when you should feel self-confident and energetic. You can handle a variety of tasks with calm enjoyment. The financial picture is bright and past problems appear to be over.

CAPRICORN (Dec. 22 to Jan. 19): Lay the groundwork now for a program directed toward your personal ambitions. Patience and perseverance exerted now will pay off later. Catch up on mail and communications — sort out and organize your work.

AQUARIUS (Jan. 20 to Feb. 18): You'll need patience and calm to handle some days filled with petty irritations. Don't take out your frustrations on others. By handling one thing at a time you avoid scattering your energies. Take time alone to regain your serenity.

PISCES (Feb. 19 to March 20): Good time to assess your working environment and make necessary changes. Express your love and appreciation to those dear to you. Display your talents and don't be afraid to move into new areas of endeavor.
